Julie is one of our most versatile teachers who has a passion for choreography, as well as providing strengthening and technical exercises in all classes.

Julie has been teaching for City Dance for over 5 years. Her other teaching experience includes the French company "Expression", as well as teaching Jazz in various French schools and running contemporary courses with the performing group "Paris 8". In addition to enrolling in a Masters in Dance in her native France, she has trained at Alvin Ailey Dance Theatre, Broadway Dance Centre and Steps on Broadway in New York. Julie has more than 10 years of performing experience with Jazz, Cabaret and Contemporary dance groups in France. In New Zealand she has performed Tango, Salsa, Jazz and Lindy Hop with DX Dance which was part of Tempo 2009 duet selection.

Since 2008 she has been the co-choreographer and performer of the Cabaret show "The Red Room Revue" which mixes Burlesque, Broadway and Pole Dancing. "The Red Room Revue" was part of the Auckland Fringe Festival in 2009. In addition, since January 2010, Julie is the Contemporary and Jazz choreographer for the performance group "Pineapple Lumps".

Julie teaches Jazz, Broadway, Contemporary, Dancefit chair, Burlesque and Zumba (Level 1, 2, Zumba Gold and Zumba Toning).
