Salsa

Yu Fen has extensive dance experience in ballroom, latin and salsa - and she is qualified to judge in all styles of Standard, Latin, New Vogue and Classical Sequence. However she also trained in ballet, contemporary and Chinese classical dance.

Yu Fen was accepted into the School of Performing Arts" at Unitec and trained under the legendary Michael Parmenter. Consequently she was the first Asian woman to graduate with a bachelor of Performing Arts in New Zealand.

Yu Fen has been a guest performer at many Auckland Festivals, including Tempo Dance Festival 06 where she was honoured with the award of Most Exquisite Female Dancer. In the same year she also won the New Zealand Jambalaya Salsa Festival Competition. In 2008 she was again nominated for Best Female Performer in Tempo.

Yu-Fen is also an accomplished Ballroom and Latin instructor and dancer, specializing in Latin Ballroom instruction, choreography and performance training. She is one of the most sought-after female Latin Ballroom instructors in New Zealand.
